

ECoG Workshop

AES Meeting

What: Advances in Theory and Clinical Application of Subdural Recordings

When: Tue, Dec. 9, 2008

Where: Seattle Convention Center Room 307/308

Time: 2:30p - 5:00p

Program

2:30p-2:50p Jeff Ojemann, University of Washington

Neurosurgical implications of advances in ECoG recordings

2:50p-3:20p Nathan Crone, Johns Hopkins

ECoG studies of human cortical function

3:20p-3:50p Gerwin Schalk, Wadsworth Center

Inferring details of motor/language function from ECoG

4:00p-4:30p Anthony Ritaccio, Albany Med. College

Replacing ECS? A new device for real-time passive functional mapping

4:30p-5:00p Brian Litt, U Penn

Challenges in mapping epileptic networks with intracranial EEG: temporal, spatial and network considerations